

WELCOME to the IRB Library!

The mission of the IRB Library is to provide the community, from preschool through maturity, with access to a balanced collection of books and other materials which will serve their recreational, informational and cultural needs. Free internet and wireless printing access for Indian Rocks Beach residents and visitors is available.

The IRB Library is staffed by a full-time librarian, and more than 20 community volunteers whom you will encounter while checking out, returning selections or browsing the bookshelves. These volunteers are mostly members of the Indian Rocks Beach Friends of the Library, a community organization which supports and funds a wide variety of library needs.

New Member Information

Library Card Guidelines – Residents

The Library key tag for residents and resident children is WHITE. Residents please complete the registration form and sign it indicating responsibility for the materials borrowed by the member or child. Children 14 and older may have a regular membership. Resident cards are free and good for 3 years. You need to show a government-issued ID and/or docs with an IRB address. Members in good standing can renew their cards every three years.

Only IRB residents have reciprocal borrowing privileges after registering with the PPLC libraries. Largo is the closest PPLC library where you can present your ID and card and get a log in and password for borrowing privileges, only.

FYI - All materials borrowed must be returned to the lending library.

PPLC members may apply for reciprocal borrowing privileges for the IRB Library.

Library Card Guidelines- NON-Residents

The key tag cards for non-residents are RED as of March 2019. The red non-resident cards are available for anyone NOT a resident in IRB who provides a picture ID WITH A CURRENT ADDRESS. A non-resident library card is good for one year at $25.00 per year. Please see the library card policy for specifics and complete the registration form and sign it.

There are no reciprocal services with the Pinellas libraries for non-resident members.

All materials must be returned to IRB Library.
