Press Release

City Hall Reopens Monday Following Completion of Hurricane Repairs

The City of Indian Rocks Beach's City Hall will reopen to the public on Monday, September 8, 2025, following the completion of hurricane-related construction and safety inspections. All departments have been operating from mobile units since Hurricane Helene, and will resume normal operations at City Hall beginning Monday, with the exception of the library.

The library and auditorium are still under construction and will remain closed to the public until further notice.

Residents are encouraged to continue using online services for convenience when possible, including accessing various forms and applications, as well as making payments at www.indian-rocks-beach.com.

City Hall regular hours are Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. and closed on National Holidays.
