Fraudulent Email Impersonating the City of Indian Rocks Beach

The City of Indian Rocks Beach has been made aware of a fraudulent email claiming to be from the "City of Indian Rocks Beach Board of Adjustments & Appeals" regarding a variance application and invoice payment.

This email is NOT an official City communication.

The fraudulent message originated from the email address:

planning.cityofindianrocksbeachfl@usa.com

Official City correspondence is sent from authorized City email addresses ending in:

@irbcity.com

Residents are advised to be cautious of any emails requesting payments, wire transfers, banking information, or personal information from non-City email addresses.

If you receive a suspicious email claiming to be from the City:

- Do not respond.
- Do not send payment or personal information.
- Verify the communication directly with City staff using official contact information.
- Report the email to the City if you believe it may be fraudulent.

The City of Indian Rocks Beach does not conduct official business through @usa.com email accounts. Always verify that communications originate from an @irbcity.com address before taking action.
